To whom it may concern,

I am writing to recommend Jaime Arriola as a software developer.

Having known Jaime as his manager and boss I am certain that he will thrive as a software developer in the future due to his persistence and willingness to learn new technologies, design patterns, and methodologies. His inquisitive nature is a grand asset in his ability to successfully learn and build software.

During his time working with me, he has always impressed me with his transparency and openness and his ability to communicate effectively and I am therefore confidently able to recommend Jaime based on this experience.

I would also be more than happy to provide further details about Jaime if needed. I can be contacted directly via email at micah@ravn.co.

Sincerely,
